New Procedures Initiated

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark has initiated some administrative changes and some implementation of new procedures.

Clark describes the action as making the changes in accordance with his style of management.

One of the first changes has been in the setting of the agenda for selectmen's meetings.

The paper work is now more formal allowing for clarification of the subject matter before the board. A brief summary of the item to be discussed or acted upon is contained in the agenda and presented by a selectman. The selectman, as sponsor, is provided sufficient information to be shared with colleagues and the public at the meeting.

The procedure, Clark says, permits the board to delegate to its members' proposals for better understanding in some depth and not burden the entire board with extensive detail.

The items on the agenda are also assigned a time frame for discussion. While not binding and not intended to limit discussion, the guidelines provide a reference for meetings on how much can be accomplished in a session.

Clark will initiate new procedures for selectmen's conference sessions also, with the establishment of priorities on what the board and administration should be working on.

This effort is aimed at completing the tasks either through town meeting, or the selectmen.

Among the priority items are development of the proposal for streamlining sewer tie-in application process and ap-

No Zoning Laws For Trade Mart

Either town meeting action or zoning board of appeals approval may be needed, if a proposed trade mart is to be built in the West Andover Industrial area.

Such action would be necessary since Andover's zoning bylaws contain no provisions for such a facility, it was learned Monday night as developers of the proposed facility met with selectmen, planning board and industrial development commission members.

The proposed trade mart would contain 100,000 square feet of exhibition area on one floor and 100,000 square feet of office space on a second floor, with a restaurant and possibly a motel as part of the complex.

Meeting with local officials in a conference session Monday night were H. Raymond Goodwin of Framingham and Frederick Bowerman of Rhode Island, who are the proponents of the facility. Atty. Carmen W. DiAdamo, represented the builders.

Planning Board Chairman David Erickson said he did not think that Andover's zoning bylaws covered such a facility, noting that there are provisions for office park type development.

The trade mart concept is not contained within the framework of Andover's bylaws, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark suggested, adding that the proponents may have to go before the board of appeals for special permission.

Clark also suggested that this may be a good route to follow since the zoning board could exercise some control over the development through the stipulating of restrictions for the project.

The developers may also choose to go before town meeting, maybe in October, to seek amendment to the zoning bylaws to allow provisions for a trade mart.

The builders plan to develop the trade mart as a regional center for the garment industry. Similar centers are located in Seattle, San Francisco, Denver, Dallas, Miami and Atlanta.

Companies would maintain offices at the center and display products to buyers. Business could be transacted in the office area on the second floor of the proposed building.

While plans include a restaurant in the complex, a nearby restaurant has rights to the area which must be negotiated, Atty. DiAdamo told the group.

Also planned is a motel in the complex at some future date.

Bowerman informed the group that discussions with officials of the Hewlett-Packard company had taken place and plans for the center had been shown to them.

Charles Doblin, representing Arkwright/Boston Insurance, owners of the industrial acreage, was asked if Hewlett-Packard had a "veto power," on development in the area, and he replied in the negative.

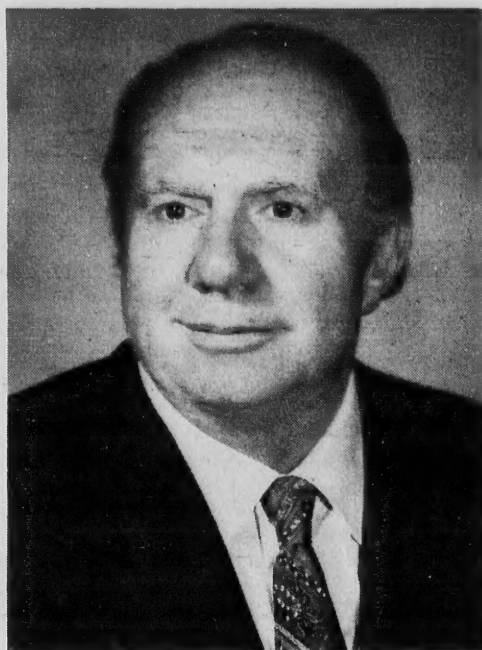

Doblin said that H-P is represented on the architectural board which oversees development, but felt they would not have the right to block any development of the area.

The proponents will continue to work with the planning board and industrial development commission.

Dr. Nick Rizzo

Candidate For Congress

Dr. Nick Rizzo, director of the Lawrence District Court, has announced that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Fifth Congressional District. He is a resident of Andover.

Indicating that he will be the candidate "who knows the people's needs," Rizzo said that for many years people in the Fifth District have come to him for help. "Today the Fifth District needs help and I believe I can help again, this time from a new vantage point, political office."

Calling the incumbent "ineffective" and "misdirected," Rizzo said, "national and foreign policy-making are a legitimate part of a Congressman's daily business, but the voters of the Fifth District did not elect their Congressman to play Secretary of State, while the major problems of this area are forgotten."

Rizzo, seeking his first political office, listed the issues facing the Fifth District as jobs, inflation and energy.

Bazaar Planning Underway

Plans are proceeding for the Andover Center Merchants Annual Sidewalk Bazaar. With little more than one month to go, several non-profit organizations have already registered to participate by setting up booths along Main Street with food concessions — arts & crafts and balloons.

The 1978 Bazaar days will highlight consumer values for the shoppers. On Saturday, Andover Center Merchants will sponsor what hopefully will become an annual event. With cooperation of the Colonial Chapter Veteran Motor Club of America, an antique and classic auto show will take place from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. There will be $1000 in prizes awarded to auto show participants in different categories.

The cars will be set up on the Town Common and should be of lasting enjoyment to all old car buffs and toshoppers who will come to view the show.

Continuing A Family Tradition

When Ralph N. Sharpe, 60 Rattlesnake Hill Road, was granted an auctioneers license by selectmen Monday night, it assured the continuance of a family tradition.

Sharpe is the son of the late Ralph Sharpe who for many years presided at auctions in Andover and other communities, as well as presiding at the annual Recycling Auction held in Recreation Park.

Upon granting the license, Selectman Susan T. Poore said she "was pleased to see that the family name will continue."

Jurors Drawn

Selectmen Monday night drew the names of five residents for jury duty to be assigned to the Essex County Superior Court sittings. Selected were Francis A. Kothman, Jr., 23 Central St.; Ethel

F. Joyce, 3 Sandy Brook Circle; Edward C. Desrocher, 21 Florence St.; George Carras, 1 Ringe Road and Rosemary C. Surette, 9 Lewis St.

Appointments Confirmed

Selectmen Monday night confirmed the town manager's appointment of Atty. Thomas B. Arnold of Boston as legal counsel to the board of health.

Selectmen James Abramson asked Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark how much the special counsel was to be paid and how much time might be involved.

Clark said that the management of legal services comes through his office and the hourly fee had been set at $50. Clark said Arnold would not be called upon for casual comment, but only when absolutely necessary.

The manager said that the board of health was going through difficult times at present, and, "if you are going to have capable people on the board, as we have, then you have to support them."

Abramson said he had no objection to the retention of special counsel, only that he felt such service should be strictly monitored and counsel services not replacing what should be properly a decision making process of a municipal board.

Other appointments confirmed Monday included Mrs. Diane Abernathy as administrative secretary in the manager's office, and Mrs. Cornelia LeMaitre to a seven year term on the Memorial Hall Library Board of Trustees.

Selectmen appointed Joseph L. Walsh to a three year term as a registrar of voters.

Selectmen also approved the undertaking of the annual junk car program under the direction of the building inspector. This program annually is directed toward compliance with town bylaws which prohibit storage of junk cars on private property.

Municipal Clerk's Week, May 14-20 was proclaimed by the board.

To Rebid Ballardvale Project

Bids will be asked again on improvements to the Ballardvale Community Center, after the initial call failed to get response.

Officials feel the time frame for completion of the work prevented contractors from submitting proposals the first time.

Will Seek Small Piece Of Land

Expansion of the service station on North Main street beside the library will preclude acquisition of any property in that area by the town.

Selectmen this week were told of the plans by the service station owners to change the sewer line servicing the library and abandoning an easement over the station property at no expense to the town.

Town Manager Clark told the selectmen the town may wish to negotiate for the purchase of a small piece of land adjacent to the Haven building to provide better access. The land is now part of the Cyr service station property.

East Prepares For 'Evening In The Park'

Currently students and faculty at East Junior High are busy preparing for their second annual "Evening In The Park." The scheduled date is Wednesday May 17. In the event of inclement weather, the evening will be rescheduled for Thursday, May 18.

"Evening In The Park" will feature physical education demonstrations highlighted by a marathon race. Skits and re-enactments of the 50's era will be presented on our mobile stage, for young and old.

Model rocketry captures the interest of many and this year is no exception. East students are anxious to share their skills with all who attend.

The World of Construction will depict student efforts in the practical arts area. The Foreign Language department hopes you will visit their French Cafe and art exhibit.

In addition to the above, this year's affair will feature media exhibits a "Poet's Korner", fashions, arts and crafts displays, choral selections and a career education display.

Refreshments will be available at old fashion prices.

Remember, May 17, a cordial invitation is extended to all friends of East Junior High, to attend "an Evening in the Park" beginning at 6 p.m.

Burton, Berry To Address FCA

The Andover Fellowship of Christian Athletes is sponsoring a Merrimack Valley night for all interested athletes, coaches, clergy, and people who would like to find out just what FCA is all about. Guest speakers at the introductory night will be Ron Burton, first-round draft pick of the then Boston Patriots; Raymond Berry, all-pro receiver with the famous Baltimore teams and now receiver coach for the New England Patriots, and Tim Davenport, Harvard quarterback.

The Andover FCA has been speaking at various church services for the past five years and has presented Andover youths with the challenge of following Christ and praising him through athletics. However, the FCA is not exclusively for athletes. All youth find a welcome in FCA. They invite the public and the athletes and those involved with youth, to the Andover West Junior High School auditorium on Sunday evening, May 14 at 7:30 p.m. to listen to what another community is doing to "turn on youth to Christ."

Library Conference May 25

A Library Media Conference for parents, teachers, librarians and school administrators interested in uncovering supplemental materials for special needs youngsters, has been set for the Sheraton Rolling Green on May 25.

Sponsored by the Merrimack Education Center, the conference will be held from 2 to 4:30.

Teams from Andover, Bedford, Wilmington and Essex-Manchester will make presentations on developing a program for special needs materials, and Ann Murray, home/school coordinator for the Merrimack Education Center, will give a special workshop session on parenting. She will stress the importance of physical, emotional and social influences of parents on a child's ability to learn.

Annetta Freedman, media director for Andover, represents the local system on the planning committee.

Registration information is also available from Carol A. Dolan, Merrimack Education Center, 101 Mill Road, Chelmsford, MA 01824.

Annual Crafts-In-Park Show Saturday

Last Minute Preparations

Potter Joan Wilde of Andover, one of several local craftsmen who will be demonstrating and selling their wares at Saturday's show in the park, puts finishing touches on some hand-crafted mugs this week.

Almost all of Central Park will be taken up Saturday with the booths of craftsmen from six New England states and New York.

Some 170 craftsmen have now signed up for the third annual Crafts in the Park, co-sponsored by the Andover Chapter of American Field Service and the Department of Recreation/Community Schools.

The event will be held from 10 to 4, with rain date, Sunday. Postponement would be announced on WBZ radio, 1030 AM and 106.7 FM.

The Andover High student chapter of AFS will be manning a refreshments booth throughout the day.

Recent additions to the list of crafts to be demonstrated and sold at the pre-Mother's Day show include wooden picture frames, chair caning, porcelain dolls, soft sculpture, Ukrainian eggs and colonial furniture.

Newcomers this year include hand-crafted kites, homegrown herbs, doll houses, brooms, hammocks, and others. Also represented will be kiln-fired glassware, scrimshaw, wheel-thrown pottery, weaving, tinsel painting, leather, copper enameling, various forms of needlework, woodworking, stained glass, quilted products, silver and gold jewelry, silk screening, toddler fashions, driftwood arrangements, frosted glassware, hand-painted jewelry, wildlife painting on slate, macrame, handmade Mexican items, pressed flowers and herbs, leaded glass, salt-glazed pottery, stuffed animals, sun-print notepaper, egg ornaments, toys, miniatures, batik, tole painting, decoupage, Egyptian jewelry, canvas work, decorated cakes, tote bags, bread baskets, reverse painting on glass and toy jumping jacks.

Karen Van Doren is in charge for AFS. Proceeds will go toward scholarships to bring foreign youths to Andover High and to send local youths abroad for a summer or a school year.

Health Board Offers Blood Pressure Check

The month of May, 1978 is National High Blood Pressure Month. A periodic blood pressure check for every member of the family can help avoid serious health problems, and save lives.

If the check reveals high blood pressure, it can be treated and controlled by following a doctor's directions, usually including medication.

But uncontrolled high blood pressure can kill. It often leads to stroke, heart failure and kidney failure. Alarming statistics, compiled by the National Institutes of Health High Blood Pressure Education Program, show that of the people who have high blood pressure, only about 20 percent successfully control it. Another 40 percent do not know they have the disease. About 20 percent are under treatment but do not yet have it under control, and 20 percent are not treating it at all.

It is a leading cause of death in the country. That is why a simple blood pressure check is such good life insurance.

The Andover Board of Health is sponsoring free blood pressure checks at two different sites from 12 noon to 2 p.m. on Friday, May 12 and Friday, May 26.

Mrs. Joseph Paulekas, R.N. and Miss Ruth Wescott R.N. will check your blood pressure at the Andover Savings Bank, 61 Main St., Andover, and Mrs. Howard Hamilton R.N., and Mrs. James Vayanos R.N., will be at the Arlington Trust, Shawsheen Plaza on Friday, May 12.

Mrs. Joseph Paulekas, R.N. and Mrs.

Ellsworth Colpitts, R.N. will do blood pressures at the Andover Savings Bank on Friday, May 26, 12-2 p.m. Mrs. Howard Hamilton R.N. and Mrs. James Vayanos, R.N. will be at Arlington Trust, May 26, 12 p.m. 12-2 p.m.

WESTern Bar-B-Que Is Set For May 25

On Thursday evening, May 25, 1978, the Faculty and Student Government of the Andover West Junior High School will sponsor its 10th annual WESTern Bar-B-Que and Educational Round-Up in conjunction with the school's annual Open House Program. This year the program theme will be "West Junior Academy Awards Night."

The Student Council officers have once again arranged to have their famous Barbequed Chicken Dinner served in the Courtyard of the school.

The Student Council officers have once again arranged to have their famous Barbequed Chicken Dinner served in the Courtyard of the school.

Plans call for the dinner to be served continuously from 5-7:30 p.m. with two lines being set up to speed service. Last year over 1000 persons were fed during the evening. Student committees are being formed to develop the theme in a "West Junior Academy Awards Night" motif.

Reservations for the dinner are now being accepted. Reservations may be made by phoning the school. No tickets for the Bar-B-Que will be available after May 19.

The Educational Round-Up will feature various examples of student work displayed throughout the school building. Visitors are invited to tour the building before or after dinner to see firsthand the achievements of the students. There will be a number of surprises during the evening.

Highlights of the Round-Up will include numerous art works, industrial arts projects and homemaking projects of the students. All departments will have special features relating to the "West Junior Academy Awards Night". A physical education exhibition will be presented during the evening in the school gymnasium.

The climax of the evening will be the presentation of the Annual Musical Clubs Concert in the school auditorium. With several hundred students participating, the program will include both vocal and instrumental selections.

The WESTern Bar-B-Que and Educational Round-Up is open to the public and the student leaders of the West Junior High School hope that all townspeople will take advantage of this opportunity

Cleanup Crew

Cubs In Cleanup Effort

What does a Cub Scout do on a sunny Saturday afternoon?

For Cub Scout Pack 102, Saturday was Cub Scout Clean Up Day. Cubs spent the afternoon cleaning up our parks and reservations, and making lists of other maintenance projects that need to be done.

In keeping with May's theme of "Environment," the Cub Scout Clean Up Day was planned with the guidance of the Conservation Commission. Joe Grasso supplied maps and lists of reservations that were particularly in need of cleaning up, and each den was assigned to a different area. The Cubs went to work with great enthusiasm, and by the end of the afternoon the tally was in — seventeen Cub Scouts had collected 56 very full Andover trash bags filled with litter and debris they had cleared from five reservations in Andover.

The day was a great success, and the boys were commended for their contribution to the town's environment. Tromping through the woods were Patrick Robb, Dennis Gallant, Adam Wager, Tom Johnson, Scott McIntire, Eric Yoder, Eric Bucholz, Erik Asgerisson, David Jedrze-jek, Chris Johnson, Mark Polakow, Eric Davis, Ronnie Granger, and Dana Lally. Webelos Mark Asgerisson, Allen Gable, and Jeff Vogel led the pack with the most bags collected.

Presentation of awards to the Cub Scouts will be made at the May 24 Pack Meeting. Conservation Commission member Joe Grasso will be invited and formally thanked for his help and support. Cub Scout Pack 102 hopes to work with the community in the future on other projects that will serve the town and provide a rewarding experience for the Cub Scouts.

In the last 25 years, there have been no tornadoes in the month of April in Massachusetts. But in May there have been nine, 13 in June, 34 in July, 22 in August, seven in September and six in October and November.

Inducted In Honor Society

The Andover High School chapter of the National Honor Society held its induction ceremonies May 10 at West Elementary School. Sixty-six seniors and twenty-four juniors were inducted in a ceremony led by the president, Charles Souter.

A candlelight ceremony highlighted the event. Paul Girard, Cathy Iacabo, Jeff Kidwell, Sandra Rigazio, and Maureen Burke each lit a candle and gave a short speech on character service, leadership, scholarship, and education respectively.

Eric Sullivan introduced the guest speaker, John Curtin of the Andover High History Department. After Mr. Curtin's speech, pins and certificates were presented to new members by George Stansfield and Doug Mesler, assisted by Donna Fabiani and Susan Cohen.

Refreshments were served to the large group of parents and new members by Joanne Polyak, Charles Souter, and Maureen Burke.

Those inducted were:

Clown Town Plans Underway

Clown Town Preparations

The Andona Society members are once again busily preparing for "Clown Town" to be held Saturday, May 20th from 9:30 to 4:30 p.m. at the Andover Playstead.

Mrs. Michael Daily, Mrs. Warren Kappeler, and Mrs. Frank McBride, co-chairmen of the event have announced that the big show attraction this year is a modern, musical adaptation of "Hansel and Gretel" called "The Bad Children." This will be performed by the Andover Community Theatre. Three performances will be held, at 11 a.m., 12:30 p.m., and 2 p.m. in the auditorium of East Junior High School on Bartlet Street.

The fun-filled day will also feature amusements, games, pony and five engine rides, a white elephant table, bakery products, puppets and clown hats made by Andona members.

Proceeds from Clown Town are used to support the organizations charitable endeavors. Annually, they award three $1,000 scholarships to graduates of Andover High School, two $500 scholarships to Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School, $1700 to provide camperships for needy children, in addition funds are also distributed to the Andover-North Andover YMCA, ABC, CFASS, Little League, and other recreational, educational, and athletic activities.

Getting ready for the annual Andona Society presentation of Clown Town are Angela Toomey, chairman of hat sales and Barbara Anastasy, chairman of the white elephant table.

William K. Crawford, of Andover, has been named vice president-general manager of the Relay Division, Electronic Instrument and Specialty Corp.

Joining the company in 1968, Crawford has been involved in all phases of EI&S design and manufacturing, and has been marketing manager since 1973. In recent years, EI&S has achieved an annual growth rate of 30-40%, and recently doubled production capacities at its Massachusetts headquarters.

In his new capacity, Crawford is responsible for all marketing, production and administration of the Relay Division. EI&S is a leading producer of Reed and Solid State Relays in a wide range of sizes and types.

A native of Gorham, Maine, he attended Northeastern University, holding a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He participates in many local activities including Cub Scouts, Youth Hockey and Buddy Werner Skiing programs. He makes his home in Andover with his wife Sylvia, and their three children.

Private Pool Program

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. will conduct a swimming program in private backyard pools this summer for the eleventh year. Pool owners of record in Andover and North Andover have been sent information regarding this program and schedules of pools available with time periods may be obtained at the "Y" office, 165 Haverhill St., Andover, by June 1. The eight week program will start the week of July 3.

A certified instructor and an assistant are scheduled for each class and certifications are issued to those meeting the various requirements in both the Y.M.C.A. and Red Cross national programs. The neighborhood swimming classes are popular since children are able to walk or ride bicycles to local pools.

Other special summer programs offered by the Y.M.C.A. include a Kinder-Kamp for boys and girls 4-6 years of age, A Trip Club on Tuesdays and Thursdays and an Adventure Club on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for boys and girls 7-12 years of age. A gymnastics school will be available again this summer.

Lilacs

The common lilac (Syringa vulgaris) has been cultivated for at least 500 years, Massachusetts Audubon says. It was noticed first by an Austrian ambassador in the gardens of Constantinople in the mid-1500s; along with the tulip, it was brought to Europe.

Author To Lecture At Luncheon

Ms. Kilbourne has been engaged for several years in research on the effects of the media on women's self images, and has lectured extensively throughout the country on this subject. She will heighten your awareness of the ways in which advertisers exploit sexuality, glorify violence against women, and portray women as objects. Her goal is to stimulate discussion and explore possibilities for change.

Advance reservations are required. Contact Mrs. Aileen Morrissey, 7 Fulton Road, Andover.

Jean Kilbourne, noted author and lecturer, will be the featured speaker at a luncheon sponsored by the American Association of University Women on Saturday, May 20, at the West Parish Church, Rte. 133 (Lowell Street) in Andover.

A salad buffet and desserts will be served from noon to 1 p.m., followed by Ms. Kilbourne's talk and slide presentation on "The Naked Truth: the Cultural Conditioning of Women through Advertising."

Day Camps Registering

Constance M. Williams

The Merrimack River Girl Scout Council offers both day and resident camping for all girls ages 7 to 17, whether they are Scouts or not.

Andover and North Andover girls attend day camp at Camp Merrymeeting, on Pomp's Pond. The director this year is Constance M. Williams of Newbury.

Mrs. Williams is employed by the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council here as a field director. This will be her first season as Camp Director.

Mrs. Williams and her staff will host an open house at Camp Merrymeeting Sunday, June 4, 2-5 p.m. Campers, parents and others who are interested are invited to tour the grounds and facilities, and meet the staff.

Camping fee includes milk, some cookouts, craft supplies, swimming instruction, insurance and round trip bus transportation each day. Convenient bus stops have been arranged in Andover and North Andover for all three sessions: July 10-21, July 24-Aug. 4 and Aug. 7-18.

Resident camp programs are offered at Camp Runels in Pelham, N. H. The Director this year is Ms. Barb Smith, a Salem, N. H. resident. Ms. Smith has had camp directing experience on Cape Cod for two summers.

One-and two-week sessions at Camp Runels open July 9. Open House at the camp will be Sunday, May 14, 2-5 p.m.

Anyone wishing complete information on all camping programs may contact the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council at 89 North Main St., Andover.

Potpourri

The Lowell Museum is sponsoring a "potpourri" Mayfair at the Museum on Saturday, May 13 from 9:30-4 p.m. Just in time for Mother's Day, visitors to the fair will be able to select that "perfect gift" from a wide assortment of handcrafted and unique items.

Eggs Lead Best Buys

Eggs lead off the list of "best food buys" for May, and lettuce prices will decline in the next week or two, reports the Massachusetts Food and Agriculture Department.

Egg production in May is forecast at 2 per cent over a year ago and a major reason is that the current flock is younger than usual and laying more eggs!

More local egg producers are now using the "Massachusetts produced and fresher" seal on their cartons, but if you don't see it where you shop — ask for it, suggests the state Food and Agricultural Department.

Heavy rains caused the short supply and escalated prices of lettuce from Arizona in the past few weeks. Most of the lettuce crop is now coming from California, and with continued good weather, there should be a sharp decline in lettuce prices. Lettuce supplies will also increase during May as harvesting of the New Jersey crop begins, and native lettuce will be available in early June.

Chicory, escarole, spinach, collard and mustard greens will be good May buys, so learn to make good use of them when lettuce prices are costly. Cole slaw is another alternative as both cabbage and carrots will be good values.

Award To Honor Mrs. Hawkes

Friends and former students of Mrs. Sandra Peters Hawkes, English teacher at Andover High School for over ten years, are setting up a fund to provide an annual award in her memory.

Two outstanding courses which she taught for a number of years were, "Creative Writing" and "Creative Expressions." Emphasis was placed on the development of writing skill in prose and poetry or on the production of types of creative communication such as dramas and films.

She understood the workings of the creative mind and that "dry periods" are inevitable. These she filled with assignments to read the outstanding writers in the fields. Each student also was required to keep a journal for daily practice in recording thoughts and feelings. She "corrected" the journals but kept any confidences to herself.

The fact that many of her former students kept in touch by letter or by visits was an indication of their response to her caring skill as a teacher. They felt her abiding faith in the concern for them and they responded with work of a caliber they had not suspected they could produce.

Her students and friends in Andover were saddened to hear of her death last fall after a long illness. Many feel that it is appropriate to set up an award to be presented annually at graduation in her memory. This award will be given to a student demonstrating excellence in creative writing or creative expression. The first award will be presented this year by one of her former students, comedian Jay Leno.

Persons wishing to make contributions to the Sandra Hawkes Memorial Award Fund may give the money to any teller at the Andover Savings Bank.

'Best Of Broadway' Monday

The last of the High School Concert series will be held Saturday, May 20 at 7:45 p.m. rather than May 15 as originally scheduled.

The concert will feature "The Best of Broadway" as performed by members of the High School Choir. Among the medley of songs featured will be music from "Camelot."

All series ticket holders are urged to note the change of Date. Their tickets will be honored on Saturday, May 20.

Seminar Continues At Church

Following last Thursday's initial presentation by a panel of professionals involved in services to the elderly, this week's Thursday evening program presented by the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Andover will focus on "role-playing" in order to give the audience a greater sense of the reality confronting both our senior citizens, friends and loved ones and the persons who become involved with them as loving, caring relatives or neighbors. "Resources for Coping" will be highlighted in a presentation by Roseann DeStephano of the Elder Services of the Merrimack Valley. Some of the specific questions that are frequently articulated will be addressed — "who can give me answers to my questions? What community help is there for my parents? Is legal help available? How do I find medical help? What are the costs involved? Are there crises telephone numbers I can reach? Will anyone serve as an advocate for someone I care about but who is far away from me?"

This program is offered free of charge to the public. Refreshments will be served.

The Unitarian-Universalist Church is located at 244 Lowell St.

Coordinators for this program, offered as a public service to the Greater Lawrence Community are Moyra Baker and Susan DeMoulas, both members of the congregation.

If all the gold owned by mankind was formed into a single block of gold, it would measure a mere 18 cubic yards on each side — though we've been digging for the precious metal for 6,000 years.

Nursing Home Care Considered

On Sunday, May 14, the Adult Forum at Faith Lutheran Church will continue their series on "Tough Choices." Mrs. Marianne Karp, R.N., will discuss "How To Choose a Nursing Home." Mrs. Karp has been a nurse at several local nursing homes and is now with the Mary Immaculate Nursing Home in Lawrence. She will describe the four levels of nursing home care and will point out the important factors in making a final decision which will be most beneficial for the patient and the family.

Forum meetings are from 9:15 - 10:15 on Sunday morning at the church on South Main Street in Andover. The public is welcome and a nursery is provided for small children.

May Breakfast

The First Baptist Church Tewksbury will hold its annual May Breakfast Saturday, May 13, from 6 a.m.-9:30 a.m. in the parish hall, First Baptist Church, Route 133, Tewksbury. Home cooked food will be served featuring juice, fruit, eggs, bacon, sausage, fish cakes, griddle cakes, muffins, english muffins, doughnuts, toast, jelly, tea, coffee, milk. There will also be a home baked food table and flowering plants for sale.

The Breakfast is sponsored by the Religious Education Committee of the Church.

Tickets Available For PA Celebration

A limited supply of tickets now is available to Andover residents on a first-come, first-served basis, for the Phillips Academy Celebration's School-Town Assembly and School-Town Luncheon, both scheduled for Thursday, June 1, the first day of the PA Celebration.

Thursday, June 1 is Town of Andover Day, when the Academy will welcome citizens of Andover to the campus and to activities celebrating the Bicentennial of Phillips Academy, founded in 1778, and the Sesquicentennial of Abbot Academy, established in 1828, opened in 1829, and merged with Phillips in 1973.

Highlight of the Town of Andover Day will be the School-Town Assembly at 11:30 a.m. in the Case Memorial Cage for students, faculty, staff, Trustees, and residents of Andover, and the subsequent School-Town Luncheon at 12:30 in the gymnasium. Both will focus on 200 years of mutual respect, interdependence, and cooperation between the town and gown or, as old-time residents say, between the Hill, the Mill and the Till.

Advance tickets are necessary for the Assembly and Luncheon, because of limited seating. Some tickets have been reserved for town officials or individuals who have served the town or Academy in a special capacity, but the remaining tickets are available as long as they last, without charge, at the following centers: town clerk's office, Memorial Hall Library, Stowe school, the public school administration office, The Haven, Doherty Insurance Agency.

Events from 9 a.m. through late evening Thursday will begin with the series of films "In Their Time: Andover at 200" and "All for Andover" and G. Gordon Bensdey's triphonic, 14-projector presentation, "Here's Andover," running continuously, and a puppet performance in George Washington Hall. After the School-Town Luncheon come seminars on visual learning, on computers and teaching of mathematics, and on trends in physical education and athletics, featuring AHS teachers as well as PA panelists. Academy students will challenge the high school athletes in baseball and softball, and there will be a track meet and a tennis meet between PA and arch-rival Exeter, plus demonstrations of Search and Rescue and free athletic activities for all interested.

The afternoon an evening will feature puppetry, theater, a carillon recital, madrigal singing, foreign language plays, the musical "Godspell" and the premiere of a new work by Composer Daniel Pinkham, an Academy alumnus, who will conduct this and a work of Beethoven, in the Cochran Chapel.

Coordinating the plans have been town and gown members of the Town of Andover Celebration Committees. The town committee, chaired by Mrs. Norma Gammon, includes William A. Doherty, Dr. William V. Emmons, Donald P. Hayes, John D. Lewis, Jr., and Miss Suzanne Casanave, a senior at the high school. Miss Dorothy Y. Judd is the PA Faculty chairman, working with two student co-chairmen, Mary Winn and Kevin Sirois, both day students. All PA student members of the committee are daystudents, and a group of PA daystudent mothers will be co-hostesses of the School-Town Luncheon.

Registration — Parking — Tickets: Tickets for performances Wednesday and Thursday evening may be reserved, without charge by telephoning the Celebration Reservation Office, 470-1320. All guests should register on arrival, to receive their Celebration program, the badge entitling them to admission to all events except the pre-ticketed School-Town Assembly and Luncheon. If driving to the Celebration, Andover residents should leave their car in the parking space provided at Rafferty Fields, off Highland Road. Those arriving on foot should register at the Case Memorial Cage.

There will be no auto traffic inside the campus during the Celebration and, to provide emergency fire lanes, no parking will be permitted on Phillips Street, Salem Street, Main Street, Highland Road or Chapel Avenue. Parking will be permitted on lower Main Street, Bartlet Street and School Street.

HOOVER CLINIC ... ALL THREE STORES

Collaborating Saves Schools $100,000

By Linda S. Corbett

While school costs continue to soar, and innovation often takes a back seat to bare essentials, there's a real ray of sunshine in Andover's special education department.

Some three dozen Andover youths with substantial special needs are receiving extensive services through the new Greater Lawrence Educational Collaborative, at a net cost to the town of about $6,100 and a hefty savings of well over $100,000 this year.

Even more importantly to those involved, Collaborative programs are providing meaningful training and relatively normal lives to many youngsters who would otherwise be confined to institutions.

The collaborative concept was approved by state law in 1974 and this particular union of Andover, Lawrence, Methuen, North Andover and the Voke School, was quick to form and initiate several quality programs on a regular basis that none of the communities could have funded on its own. Furthermore, they found some state and federal funds that are available only to joint projects.

In addition to its own programs, the Collaborative serves as something of a clearing house for special needs classes in the various systems, so youngsters from one community can enroll in a class in another on a space available, tuition basis. This saves each system from, say, hiring a specialist to teach a class for severely handicapped for only a handful of youngsters. Now the facilities and costs can be shared.

The Collaborative is headed by Malchan Stanley, who holds degrees in psychology and education and served as both an elementary teacher and school psychologist before becoming a program coordinator and then, two years ago, director. He works out of an office in Jackson School here, which also houses Andover's 766 program.

The Collaborative is run by a board of directors made up of the superintendents of each of the communities, and Andover's share of expenses comes out of the 766 budget.

Pre-School Program

Collaborative programs run the age gamut from three to 22, beginning with a Pre-School Program located at the Bradstreet School in North Andover. Here, youngsters three through seven, with moderate developmental lags, learn activities of daily living, motorized skills, social skills and language development.

Another special program developed largely through the efforts of Pamela Kvilekval, Andover's Chapter 766 head, is the Collaborative Center, a live-in set up for 24 to 30 adolescents at the Boys Club in Lawrence.

These are boys with severe social and emotional problems, who couldn't benefit from the regular high school curriculum. Many of them, says Mrs. Kvilekval, would otherwise probably be sent away. Some would be in jail, some in hospitals, some dead. Here they get psychotherapeutic treatment, and the Center works with their parents as well.

The Center is run in conjunction with the Department of Mental Health, which contributes 50 percent of the funds. The cost to Collaborative members is $3500 per youth — whereas maintaining them in other institutions would be at least double. So the Center alone represents an annual savings to the Town of Andover of nearly $20,000.

says, who couldn't handle the regular academic routine. Some, she says, would have been in sheltered workshops and would most likely not be reaching their potential.

Local firms participating in the work program include Digital Corp., Hewlett-Packard, the Academy Nursing Home,

Transitional Employment

Another Collaborative program that's achieving outstanding results is Transitional Employment — where 25 to 30 teenagers with low academic skills and various developmental lags learn functional skills in morning classes at the Greater Lawrence Vocational Technical High School, and are employed parttime by outside companies.

These are youngsters, Mrs. Kvilekval

The Language of Flowers

by Gerry Trull

Lilium candidum or Madonna Lily is a spectacular plant to grow. It has a delicious fragrance and pure white blossoms that are a sight to behold! You may know this beauty as the Lent Lily, Annunciation Lily or St. Joseph's Lily or be familiar with the elegant variety so adaptable to America, the Perigrinum. This inspirational plant is native to the Mediterranean region and wanders from Italy to the Holy Land. Now, it can grace your own garden with bloom spikes up to four feet tall. Cultivate like other lilies with no more than an inch of soil over the top of the bulb, work a handful of limestone into earth before planting and sit back and enjoy the magnificent Madonna Lily.

You can enjoy magnificent flowers and plants in your home too when you rely on TRULL'S MILL HILL FLOWER CENTER, 411 River Rd., 851-6161 for your floral needs. Choose from an outstanding array of fresh, dried and silk flowers and foliage and blooming plants, including a wide selection of flowers and plants ideal for remembering your loved ones or Memorial Day. Open: 9-5:30 Mon-Sat.

Collaborative

The Andover Inn, Cahoot's Restaurant and Gillette.

There are presently eight Andover youths in Transitional Employment, at a cost of about $12,500. Without the Collaborative, it's estimated that services for these youths would cost the town about $80,000.

Programs At Hogan

Finally, the Collaborative provides help for Greater Lawrence youngsters, including 15 from Andover, who reside at the Hogan Regional Center in Danvers.

A new Developmental Skills Class provides help for multiply-handicapped children at Hogan itself. Then a new Supplemental Recreation Program provides evening and weekend recreational activities for some 35 children — at times when they used to do nothing.

"It used to be that they sat on a mat and waited for a therapist to come around once a week," says Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert.

Even before Chapter 766, Seifert said, the program at Hogan was better than most. But now, he says, parents feel much better. It's less institutional and there are more therapists around.

The Collaborative also offers a Public Schools Program, whereby 12 youngsters who reside at Hogan are transported to community schools. They are in substantially separate classes, but have an opportunity to operate in the mainstream of the school during recess and lunchtime. Specialist services such as speech, occupational and physical therapy are provided at no cost under a state grant, and the local school systems are reimbursed for other services.

One Andover child at Hogan now attends class in Methuen.

Still other Collaborative programs include Summer Camp, which last year handled 35 youngsters with substantial special needs, and a class for deafmentally handicapped children that provides a "normalized" public school setting and teaches them alternative methods of communication.

Existing Classes

Andover comes out way ahead with its own classes for youngsters with developmental problems, receiving tuition from youngsters who are referred here by the Collaborative from other communities. The classes are already staffed by Andover school personnel and Andover would be footing the bill alone, were it not for the Collaborative.

Classes in which outside youngsters are presently enrolled include one for the physically handicapped at Sanborn, and classes for developmentally disabled at East Jr. High and at Shawsheen School.

Meanwhile, Andover sends only three youngsters to other systems in this exchange, at a cost of $2,700 per pupil, while this year the town is taking in $24,300 from others — another healthy savings.

There are 10 classes so shared in the communities — three in Andover, one in North Andover, one at the Voke School, three in Lawrence and two in Methuen.

While all the talk about savings is important, Seifert emphasizes that Andover is not "scrimping," but in fact has a very good reputation statewide for special needs programs. In fact, projections call for double the savings next year, while enrollments increase the Transitional Employment alone is expected to increase from 30 to more than 100 participants.

But, Seifert warns, all this really depends on the continued support of public funds. We're at the "ouch point" on Chapter 766, he said. If state or federal assistance are cut or new programs mandated, the $6100 will have to go up.

WHEN YOU WANT TO GO BUT YOUR WALLET SAYS NO...

Caught short? Don't worry.

Hasn't this happened to all of us? You want to treat yourself to a well-deserved vacation or maybe take advantage of a bargain or perhaps pay some overdue bills... but you can't because you just don't have any available money. That's when it's good to know you're an EB Write Now Account customer.

Here's how it works.

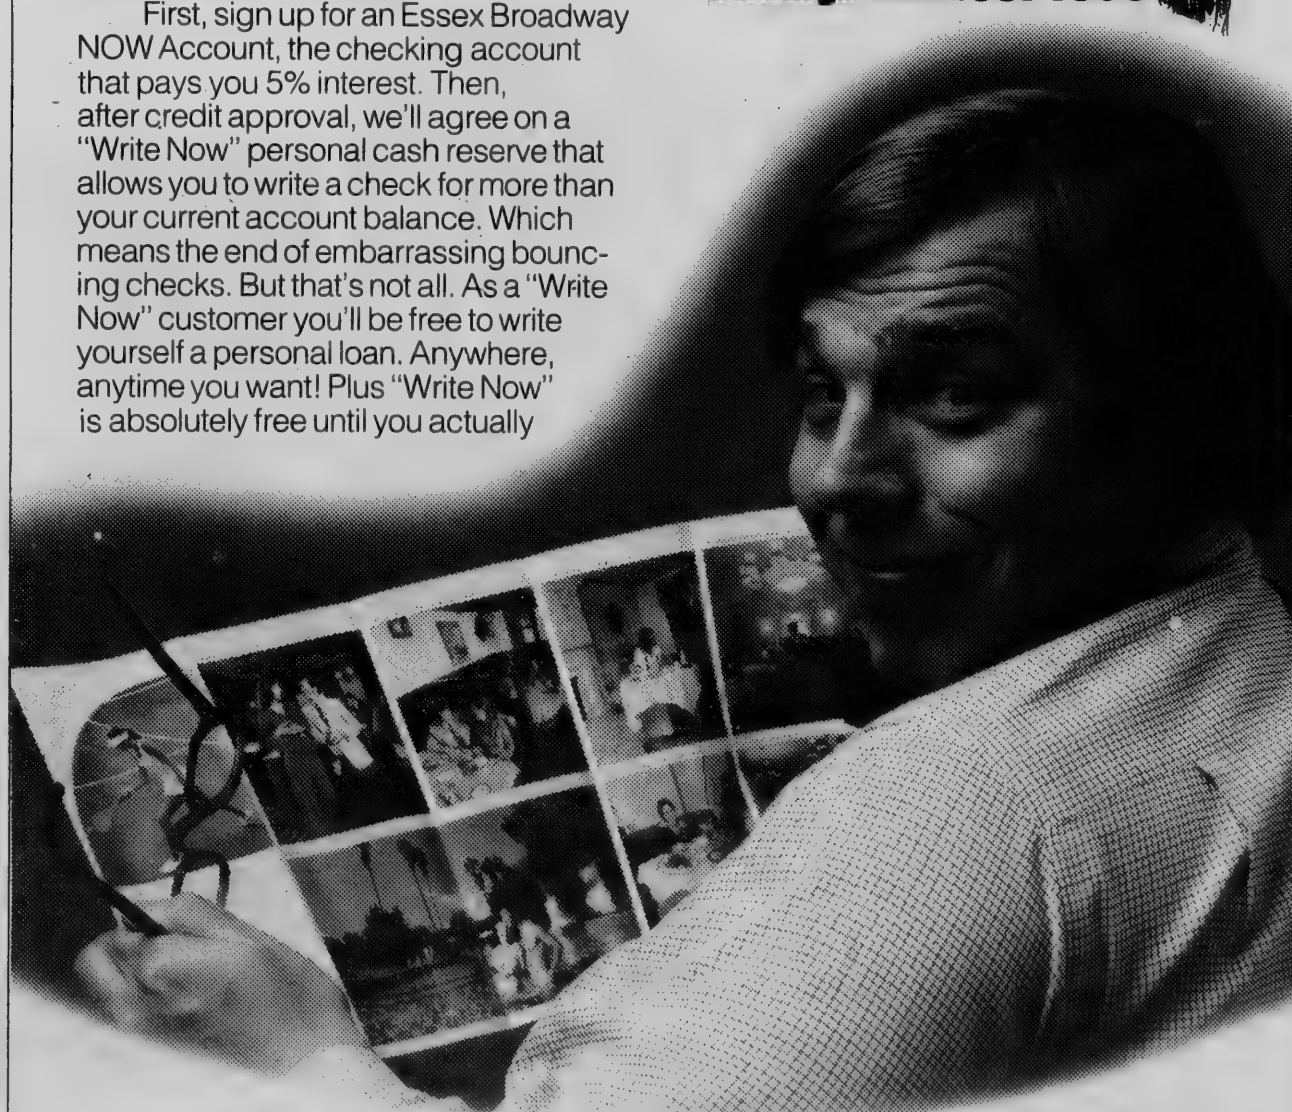

First, sign up for an Essex Broadway NOW Account, the checking account that pays you 5% interest. Then, after credit approval, we'll agree on a "Write Now" personal cash reserve that allows you to write a check for more than your current account balance. Which means the end of embarrassing bouncing checks. But that's not all. As a "Write Now" customer you'll be free to write yourself a personal loan. Anywhere, anytime you want! Plus "Write Now" is absolutely free until you actually use your cash reserve.

So why put up with the inconvenience of ordinary checking when you can enjoy the unbeatable financial convenience and freedom of cash reserve checking. "Write Now."

Kiker Finds Jugoslaviya "A Diversity"

American Abroad

Rick Kiker, AFS student spending the year in Jugoslaviya, poses behind a barrel of homemade "rakija," a very strong brandy. Homemade "vino" has a permanent place on every Croatian table.

(Editor's Note: Rick Kiker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Kiker, 28 Kathleen Drive, is spending the year in "Jugoslaviya" as an AFS American Abroad. Here is his letter to townspeople.)

By Rick Kiker

If any one word can be used to describe Jugoslaviya, it would be — diversity. There are the towering Alps of Slovenia; the farming plains of northern Croatia; the rugged mountainous Pine forests of Herzegovina; the lakes and fjords of Montenegro, and of course the hundreds of beautiful islands in the Adriatic.

The most sweeping and important differences, however, lie in the peoples' vastly different history, cultures and religion. All through history, these South Slavic people, from whom Jugoslaviya was created, have had very little in common. They all have very long, colorful, histories, much too complicated to discuss here. But today the result of this unlikely combination is three different languages: Slovenian, Serbo-Croatian and Macedonian. Also within each region, dialects are thrown in to spice things up. Serbo-Croatian, the official language, is really a mixture of the two similar tongues of Hrvatski (which I speak) and Serbian. There are also three major religions and two official alphabets. There is Christianity: Orthodox from the Byzantine Eastern Empire using the Cyrillic alphabet and Roman-Catholic from the Western Empire using the Latin alphabet. The Islamic comes from the Turkish influence during the Ottoman Empire.

Today the only problems here stem from the rivalries between Serbia and Croatia. All through history, because of their different backgrounds, the Serbs and Croats have been at odds and in recent history, many political skirmishes and jealousies have developed; much like the feelings between England and Scotland. Marshall Tito's biggest problem since this "new" country was established in 1943, has been to keep feelings between these two people relatively friendly.

But all in all, this unlikely combination of peoples, cultures, and ideas, have all been very successfully brought together to form a thriving and powerful country under the single (undominated by anyone) red star of Communism, and of course, the almost worshipped leader Josip Broz Tito.

I live in the city of Pula which is on the Istrian Peninsula of Croatia that juts out into the warm, blue waters of the Adriatic. Pula contains about 50,000 people and has the pride of the country, the Uljanik shipyards. In the winter, Pula is a terribly boring, dreary place with days upon days of cloudy or rainy weather. There is never any snow and the temperature generally stays at about 40 degrees F. In the summer though, Pula is transformed. It becomes a tourist spot for thousands, mainly from Germany, Austria and Italy. Istria is famous for its sun and inviting waters.

Last August and this coming June and July, I will live in Premantura, a small village on the southernmost tip of Istria. There my Yugoslavian grandmother, Nona, and her family have lived for 450 years, although during the cold weather she lives with us here in Pula. My mother teaches Italian literature and Tata, my father, is an engineer at the shipyards. I have one brother, Tommy, who is 16. Both my brother and father speak good English, which at first was a help, but now is more of a hindrance. They have the habit now, of speaking English and at this point I would rather it be Hrvatski.

Probably the most fortunate thing that I have done is meeting a veterinarian who is a former student of my mother. Several times I've gone the village rounds with him, a most exciting and enlightening experience.

The differences between city and village life are enormous. In many ways, these true peasants live just as they have for hundreds of years, using their ox drawn carts and traditional farming implements. Smoked hams, snouts and sausage hang from the smoke house ceiling. Outdoor stone ovens still bake the

Nursery Plans Open House

West Parish Nursery, a non-denominational nursery school, which meets at the West Parish Church in Andover, will hold an Open House for new parents on Tuesday, May 16.

The nursery school program will be described by Teacher/Director Audrey DesRoches and Teachers Charlotte Flynn and Sherry Tupper. A movie showing the annual Christmas Show put on by the children of the nursery will highlight the meeting. New officers for next year will be elected.

The nursery school meets on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings from 9 to 11:30 for children who will be four years old by Sept. 1. For further information on enrollment for September contact Gail DerAnanian, chairman or call West Parish church.

CONSIDERING A CAREER IN REAL ESTATE?

The Opportunity

A career in Real Estate is an opportunity that can be both financially & personally rewarding. Since your success in Real Estate is directly commensurate with the knowledge, enthusiasm, creativity, and self-discipline you put forth, it is, truly, a career in which you can be the master of your destiny!

The Education

The first step towards a career in real estate is obtaining the basic knowledge needed to pass the state licensing exam. This step may be your most important, for without an excellent foundation, the Real Estate license may be unattainable, rendering all further plans useless.

At the present time, several states, including Massachusetts and New Hampshire have few or no formal educational requirements, other than an ability to pass an exam administered by the respective states' Real Estate Licensing Commission.

The Berge Institute

The passing of the state exam is, as we've said, the first step toward a rewarding career in Real Estate. However, Berge's Real Estate has, on many occasions, been faced with the re-education of newly licensed sales people. Pre-exam training alone was not necessarily sufficient to insure an easy transition into the complex, day-to-day process of Real Estate sales.

Realizing a need for a pre-licensing exam course offering a more practical approach, Berge's founded The Berge Institute of Real Estate.

The Course

The Berge Institute of Real Estate has developed one of the finest pre-licensing exam courses available anywhere. It is taught by Berge's Realtor's most successful brokers, and includes both information directly applicable to passing the N.H.-Mass. state

Dog's Fate In Hands Of Selectmen

31

The fate of a dog claimed to be vicious and a nuisance is in the hands of selectmen following a public hearing Monday night.

The complaint against a German shepherd owned by Mr. and Mrs. Michel Pierrat, 48 Farrwood Drive, was brought before the board by Mrs. Julius M. Romeo of 1 Mohawk Road and Dog Officer Donald V. Porter.

Selectmen took the matter under advisement and will discuss it further at their conference session next Monday.

According to Porter, the dog was ordered permanently restrained in December of 1977 under provisions of the old dog control law, after biting a child.

Porter said that under terms of the new dog bylaw passed last October, the dog was ordered restrained for 30 days after it bit the Romeo child in both legs. During the period the dog was off restraint it bit the Romeo child again on May 3.

The dog officer said that two citations had been issued to the owners and neither had been paid; one a $25 fine the other $15.

Additional complaints about the dog had been received by Porter from neighbors in the Farrwood Drive area.

Pierrat told selectmen that he had installed a 100 foot runner for the dog. On one occasion his youngster had freed the dog, thus violation of the restraint order.

He also said he was installing a four-foot fence in order to keep the dog in his yard. The animal was obtained as a watchdog, Pierrat said, but is not vicious and plays with some youngsters in the area.

To destroy the dog would cause great trauma to his children, Pierrat told selectmen, adding if anyone is guilty it is the owners and not the animal.

Mrs. Romeo showed the board the pants torn by the dog when it bit her son, who was treated for puncture wounds at the hospital following the action. A month or so later, and after having infections cleared in the wounds, the dog again bit the youngster.

She said youngsters cannot ride their bikes around the block due to fear of the Pierrat dog.

The board decided to consider the presentations made Monday night before making a decision.

Procedures

appointments to town boards and committees.

The sewer tie-in streamlining is to allow applications to be processed within the time frame allowed and coming before the board of health, planning board and selectmen for action on a more uniform basis.

Clark will have several appointments to make to boards and committees in his first year on the job, including the naming of a school building committee. That group will be overseeing the addition and renovation to the East Junior High school and construction of an auditorium and classroom building at Andover high school.

Other appointments include three to the planning board, three to the conservation commission and two to recreation/community schools committee.

The manager said he is in the process of familiarizing himself with the activities of the groups and would be making appointments as soon as possible, particularly to those boards and committees not at full strength at the moment. Action should come quickly on those, Clark said, in order to allow the boards to function with full membership.

Appointment of a director of community development is also high on the priority list in order to allow for the reorganization of inspection services geared toward better growth management of the town.

Clark will also be addressing the issue of reorganization of the recreation/community schools department.

That agency, in operation for five years, has undergone a study by the committee itself in an effort to examine its future role.

Clark is meeting with members of the R/CS committee, the Council on Aging and the Friendly Visitors Program, to determine if the services can be combined into one agency, or how best to provide the services effectively.

Town Clerk Elden R. Salter is in the process of finalizing and recording the actions of town meeting, which will result in the manager and selectmen implementing the orders given by the voters.

Also in the process of implementation by Clark is a new monthly report method for town departments, which follows his "management by objectives" theory.

Kathy Would Like To Row In Seattle

Kathleen Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lyons, 38 Phillips Street, and a 9th grader at Phillips Academy, has emerged as a promising candidate for the U. S. National Junior Women's Rowing Team.

The team staff will select about two dozen oarswomen at trials in Seattle in June, then travel to Europe for three weeks of racing and training prior to the 1978 World Championships in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, July 26-29. There they'll meet the best junior crews in an event of Olympic dimension, style, attitude and approach.

According to Christopher D. Kirkland, U.S. National Junior Women's Rowing coach and selector, getting to the trials in Seattle and to Belgrade for the world championships are expensive propositions, and he is seeking support from the Andover community. Contributions toward Kathy's travel expenses may be made to Kirkland, care of Phillips Academy.

Although Kathy is still in her first year of rowing, Kirkland says she has already broken into PA's undefeated, New England interscholastic championship and record-holding crew of eight. Whereas most of the national team candidates had been identified by mid-winter, he says Kathy's spring performance puts her high among them. He says her rapid progress, extending promise and extraordinary strength-to-weight ratio more than compensate for what she may lack in years and experience.

From an athletic family with a strong background in Andover school system gymnastics, Kirkland says Kathy is blessed with unperturbed concentration, natural form and smoothness. Last fall, while winning the novice bracket of the inter-squad elimination tournament, she developed speed, skill and stamina as a single sculler. He says she is exceptionally alert and responsive to minimal coaching, and increasingly confident both as a stroke and at rowing on her unaccustomed side.

In recent weeks, he says, Kathy has indisputably demonstrated the capacity to contest one of the seats in PA's four-with-coxswain crew, which for two years has succeeded in competition against the country's best college and club crews. The PA four is by far the most experienced among the anticipated entries in the open trials for the Belgrade team berth and clearly the boat to beat.

If Kathy does not make this crew, or if another four-oared crew succeeds in the trials, Kirkland says, she still stands an equally good chance of making the eight or pair-oared crews, composites, to be selected from the best candidates following the fours and sculling selections.

Being Defensive Seems Proper Move

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark has indicated that the town's attitude with regard to a suit by the state compelling the town to conduct a revaluation program, will be defensive.

The manager feels that Town Counsel Alfred S. Daniels, one of a select group of attorneys examining the state's court action against a handful of communities throughout the state, will be alert to the town's best interests in the matter and will keep the administration apprised of developments.

In view of the town rejecting a revaluation program for the third time in a year at town meeting this year, the defensive attitude would appear to be the best move.

We won't dwell on the merits or demerits of the action of the voters in rejecting revaluation again at the annual town meeting, but merely examine the fact that a suit exists against Andover and other communities which orders the town to conduct such a 100 per cent equalization program.

Clark's position in the matter is twofold. One is to protect the town's interests, if the court order is actually imposed. In other words, if a revaluation program is mandated, then the town should have control over such activity, since it will be Andover funds which will underwrite the project.

Second, and probably more important, is that all communities in the Commonwealth should be treated equally and not singled out for conformance to statute.

Andover has conducted a revaluation program twice in the past 20 years and the assessors were desirous of continuing the program on the every ten year schedule.

Obviously, voters have felt differently about the matter.

But, it should be pointed out that the town was a leader in revaluation procedures and record maintenance when the town was reassessed back in the late 50's.

If one were to examine the communities which are included with Andover in the court order for revaluation, it might be determined that the state virtually took a town and a city from various parts of the state and chose to make examples of them.

This is hardly the best way to enforce a program.

We agree that all communities in the state should be ordered to revalue, not just a handful.

Adding further problems to the revaluation consideration, is a referendum item which will be on the November Ballot which calls for a classification method of placing value on property for tax assessment purposes.

This could compel towns and cities to undergo revaluation programs next year, if the electorate chooses such a method. At first glance, such a method is beneficial to cities, but not too good a plan for towns.

But, that matter is better left to November consideration.

The matter of cost in another consideration when being defensive.

The town manager wants the town to have the option of doing the revaluation at the local level, should the court order prevail.

Based on actions of state agencies we fully concur.

Andover should be more than reluctant to hand to the state the ability to provide appraisal firms to do the work in Andover, then send us the bill.

Chamber Expresses Appreciation

Andover Chamber of Commerce expressed appreciation to the public works department for its efforts in the Great Blizzard of 78, during the selectmen's meeting Monday night. Atty. Lawrence J. Sullivan, representing the chamber, presented a plaque to the department in appreciation of the great effort made in combating the storm of the century. From left, Robert Volker, acting highway superintendent; Robert E. McQuade, public works director, Atty. Sullivan and Ralph Tufano, president of the union. In making the presentation, Sullivan noted that public safety personnel were recognized for their efforts, as were others who made contributions to the town's welfare during the storm, but public works crews performed significant tasks in getting the town open and keeping it that way.

As promised some time ago, there is now a new station for the FOOD CO-OP — in Ballardvale. You may place your order each Friday morning between 9 and noon and pick it up each Tuesday morning between 9 and noon at the Ballardvale Church. This program provides groceries at bargain prices — items in small quantities for the small household with variety and quality and all for five dollars. And once a month a bag of paper and household cleaning products is available for five dollars. If you'd like to know more about the program, call the Haven . . . or stop by one of the ordering stations about the town.

The Elderly Transportation facility has announced an expansion of its services to include Saturdays from 10 to 4 for doctors' appointments and the like. The service is available throughout Andover every day during the week from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. This is especially designed for those early morning medical appointments. Call The Haven to make an appointment at least 24 hours in advance.

June 25 is a Sunday and is also the date of the next theater party at Chateau de Ville. Featuring the Broadway production "Mame", the performance is a matinee with a delicious luncheon included in the price. Further details are available at The Haven office — 475-3968. Talk about it to your friends and plan a group, but do it soon. Tickets go quickly.

Decrease In Fatalities

Of the six New England States, only Massachusetts is showing a decrease in highway fatalities so far this year. This report comes from the U. S. Department of Transportation National Highway traffic Safety Administration. For the Period Jan. 1 through March 31, Massachusetts highway fatalities dropped to 105 from 120 for the same period in 1977. This is a 13% decrease.

All other New England States have shown highway fatality increases from as little as 1% to as great as 19%.

Massachusetts highway fatalities for the first 3 months of 1978 have decreased a whopping 54% over the same three month-period in 1973.

U.S. Reliance on Oil Remains, Despite Warnings by Experts

WASHINGTON -- The United States was stunned by the 1973 oil embargo. So for a few weeks, Americans kept an apprehensive eye on their gas gauges and wondered uneasily whether the world's mightiest power could be thwarted by a few Arab sheiks.

Meanwhile, the United States has become increasingly dependent upon overseas oil. Almost 40 percent of it must now be shipped across the seas. This means our oil supply, our industrial lifeblood, is dangerously vulnerable.

Government strategists have warned President Carter that it will take longer to develop new energy sources than it will take to deplete the oil supplies. They point out that it took us about 60 years to shift from coal to oil. But their confidential report adds tersely: "This time we do not have 60 years."

The experts warn that "the nation's heavy reliance on oil and gas must be reduced." Otherwise, we will find ourselves on a downhill skid toward tragedy.

But the oil industry is determined to keep the United States hooked on oil as long as it lasts. And the oil industry has dominated the nation's energy policies by planting its people in key policymaking positions.

The latest is the general counsel to the Energy Department. President Carter has selected a Texas lawyer named Lynn Coleman for the job. Coleman comes from the Houston law firm of ex-Treasury Secretary John Connally. This firm represents some of the giants of the oil industry and is regarded as the nation's foremost legal spokesman for the oil and gas industry.

Coleman has the powerful backing of trade ambassador Robert Strauss, who has lately become a powerful figure in the backrooms of the White House. He is close to the president's ear — and close to the oil industry.

Strauss told us that he did not recommend Coleman, but said he was a "spectacular appointment." Strauss also admitted that he has praised Coleman in the backrooms and that he had encouraged Coleman to fight for the job. In fact, Strauss said he would testify on Capitol Hill in Coleman's behalf.

This has brought Strauss into a collision with Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D.-Ohio. Metzenbaum warns that Coleman's first loyalty is to the oil industry and that it's time to remove our energy policies from the influence of the oil industry.

Presidential Threats: Lee Harvey Oswald's name will go down in history as President John F. Kennedy's assassin. Two women, Sara Jane Moore and Lynette Fromme, made the front pages by attempting to shoot President Gerald Ford.

But the public never hears of the people who get caught before they can carry out their assassination attempts. Five men have been locked up for threatening the life of President Carter. Four wrote ominous letters to the White House and the fifth made a threatening phone call.

All five were apprehended, quickly and efficiently, by the Secret Service. Gary Lee Lane and William Hufnagel Jr., are behind bars in Springfield, Mo. Stephen Kent Fristoe and Edward Harold Xorey were sentenced to the Lompoc, Calif., penitentiary. And Marvin Eugene Ham was sent to the federal prison at Butner, N.C.

Federal Movies: The federal government has enough movie equipment to compete with Hollywood. The federal film studios contain a staggering two billion dollars worth of equipment. They employ 23,000 camera crewmen and produce $500 million worth of film each year. Films have been made on every conceivable subject, from agriculture to zoology.

The Agriculture Department sent a film crew all the way to French Guinea to film a movie about killer bees. The officials wanted to show that the bees aren't as vicious as they have been portrayed. It cost the taxpayers $10,000 to tell the bees' side of the story.

The National Park Service spent $450,000 on a 30-minute Bicentennial film. An informational movie started by the Navy in 1971 took so long to complete that it didn't get released until five years later.

Most government film studios don't have to account for the money they spend and only the most slipshod records are kept. Some of the studios, with lavish equipment, are barely used.

But the movie business in Washington is going to change. The White House has ordered a halt to the extravagance. The White House Office of Telecommunications has completed a private study and made a series of recommendations that will soon be implemented. The unused government movie studios will be ordered to consolidate or close down. They will also be prohibited from blowing their own horns at the taxpayers' expense.

In the future, only specific programs may be publicized with films. Federal agencies will also be responsible for every penny they spend on movies.

No Support: The American Legion, an organization of veterans, has threatened not to support the United States if there's another war.

Many members of the patriotic group believe that the government has not done enough to find American soldiers still missing in southeast Asia. They have accused the State Department of sweeping the whole issue under the rug to make way for full diplomatic relations with Hanoi.

The State Department, of course, says it's doing all it can to learn more about those who are still missing in action in Vietnam.

Down The Years With The Townsman

37

THE TOWNSMAN, MAY 11, 1978

75 Years Ago — May, 1903

Hon and Mrs. Moses T. Stevens were honored this past week on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Reception were held at their home in North Andover and a special public assembly was held in town hall here for employees of the Marland Mills to honor the couple.

At a meeting of the school committee this week, William Angus was appointed truant officer for the Abbot District.

Treasurer Parker calls attention of the public to the special announcement in regard to sewer assessments which remain unpaid. Legal action will be taken if the bills are not paid by June 1.

The opening of town hall in 1858 is noted in a program found by E. E. Trefrey. The opening ceremonies included an invitation dance, which was repeated in 1859.

The mill at Frye Village will be started in a few weeks by Babcock and Howland, the new owners. The firm will treat wool waste at present. The naptha part of the plant will be built just north of the present mill.

50 Years Ago — May, 1928

President Calvin Coolidge will deliver the principal address Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Sesquicentennial. Among distinguished guests attending will be Frederick Bldgen Malim, master of Wellington College, England who will represent the English public schools.

Miss Leslie White Hopkinson, niece of the late President Eliot of Harvard, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the League of Women Voters to be held Thursday at Phelps House.

Andover's four surviving Civil War Veterans held a reunion Friday at the home of Comrade James Saunders on Chestnut street, who acted as host to John B. A. Russell, John Cummings and Henry Clukey.

Arthur Smith who retired as manager of the A. and P. for two years, has accepted a similar position with the First National Store to be located in the new block at the corner of Main street and Punchard Avenue.

Edward P. Lawson was appointed building inspector by the selectmen this week. He succeeds Charles Gilliard who was named last week as superintendent of public works.

25 Years Ago — May, 1953

Harold Howe, II, headmaster of Punchard High and the Junior High School, has submitted his resignation to the school committee.

Some parents have indicated to the school committee their feelings that teaching of conversational French in elementary grades is a useless study for the majority of pupils.

Johnny Murray, pitching for the Punchard J. V. team, hurled a no-hitter and struck out 223 in leading his club to a win over Methuen J. V.'s.

Edward Romeo has completed his second tour of duty with the U. S. Navy and will return May 20 to his former civilian position as manager of the Andover Inn.

A written decision of the board of appeals denying permission to construct a motel on the Andover Bypass, as presented by Guy B. Howe, will be filed this week.

Memorial Hall Library

Ballardvale Library Celebrates

The Ballardvale Branch Library will be celebrating the 65th anniversary of the opening of the Branch Library on Sunday May 14. An Open House from 4 to 8 p.m. will highlight "reminiscing about the good old days of Ballardvale." Displays prepared by Librarian Ruth Sharpe and a slide show at 7 p.m. will conjureup memories of Ballardvale it its heyday. Everyone is invited.

Opera Club

The Opera Club will be discussing two operas this month — Cavalleria Rusticana and Pagliacci. Interested opera lovers are always welcome to join the Club. Since both operas were performed in Boston during the Met's spring offering, an especially interesting evening is anticipated.

Original Art For Loan

While many patrons of the Library are aware of the framed prints which may be borrowed, most people are not aware of the original art collection at the Library. These works may be borrowed for a 2-month period for a $5 fee. Watercolors, oils, and acrylics by local artists are available for loan and purchase. To fill that void in your living room, check with the circulation desk and brighten your home.

Children's Room News

By Ruth Hooten

Films on Fridays will continue until May 26. On May 12 we will be showing "Hercules," "One Wide River to Cross" and "Andy and the Lion." The movies for May 19 will be "Owl and the Pussycat," "Mole and the Rocket" and "Punch and Jonathan."

Don't forget Pajama Party Thursday nights at 7. Pajama Party is our preschool storyhour for children ages 3½ to 5 years that features stories and a movie. Pajamas are optional but most children do come to the storyhour dressed in them.

There is a flyer available in the Children's Room giving all the titles of the cassettes for borrowing. Many new titles have recently been added such as "James and the Giant Peach" and "The Cat in The Hat Songbook."

Plant Sale

The Hathorne League for Retarded Children is sponsoring a plant sale on May 13, 20 and 21 at the Friends of Hathorne Greenhouse at the Hogan Regional Center in Danvers. On Saturday, May 13 and 20, the hours will be 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Sunday, May 21, the hours will be 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Hogan Regional Center is located on the grounds of the Danvers State Hospital on Route 62 in Danvers. Just follow the "Plant Sale" signs from Route 62 into the greenhouse.

Four Teams Sport 2-0 Records

By Rick Harrison

The Dodgers and Giants are running neck-and-neck in the National League race, while the Red Sox and White Sox are doing likewise in the American League after a full week's activity in the Andover Major Little League.

All four of the above teams sported identical 2-0 records through action last weekend.

National League

Dodgers, 6-5

Chris Marsella tied the game with a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth inning, and then Chuck Arrigo singled home the game-winning marker in the last of the sixth as the Dodgers nudged the Cubs 6-5 to remain undefeated.

Arrigo also slugged a double to back winning pitcher Bob Wilson, who chalked up the victory in relief.

Sean Burns rapped a two-bagger and single for the hard-luck Cubs, while John Crawford added a double.

Braves, 10-4

Mike Twomey personally destroyed the defending NL champion Cardinals, twirling a three-hitter on the mound and going 4-for-4 at the plate as the Braves rolled to a 10-4 triumph.

Twomey hammered a pair of doubles and two singles, while Dave Laporte and catcher Jana Caldwell chipped in a double and single apiece for the Braves.

Brett Larrabee spanked an RBI for the Cards, while singles by Zack Apgar and John Geiger were the only other hits for the losers.

Giants, 12-4

Kurt Smith clouted a homerun and double as the Giants powered past the Pirates, 12-4.

John Regan added three safeties for the winners, while Chris Scarpa and Tom Lutz rapped a double and single apiece.

Steve Eldred collected the pitching victory in relief, and the big blow for the Pirates was a double by Bill Baldwin.

Mets, 11-1

Ralph Dellato hurled the season's first no-hitter, stopping the Braves without a safety in an abbreviated four-inning contest called by cold weather and won by the Mets, 11-1.

Dellato won his own game in the first inning with a three-run double.

John O'Connor drilled a run-scoring double and Steve Dougal added a pair of safeties for the Mets.

Dave Steele scored the lone Braves' run drawing the first of three walks and crossing on a wild pitch.

Orioles, 14-8

The Orioles registered a 14-8 darkness-shortened four-inning victory over the Indians.

Joe Fournier, Kevin Rourke and Jason Reeder all had a hand in the O's pitching, while the Indians sent Bill Foley and Jeff Wolnick to the hill.

Agressive base-running, fine defensive work by catcher Tom Marjerison, and a pair of safeties by Reeder led the Orioles.

Jim Dalyl and Dave Nelson spiked two hits apiece for the Indians.

Red Sox, 17-15

The Red Sox netted five runs in the first, fifth and sixth innings, but had to weather an eight-run Orioles' explosion in the bottom of the sixth before coming away with the 17-15 win.

The Orioles outhit the Sox by a 14-9 margin, but it wasn't enough as walks did 'em in.

Tom Powers, the second of five Red Sox hurlers, was credited with the mound win.

Ed Hardy went 2-for-4 for the Sox, slamming a triple and single, scoring three runs and driving home three.

Bob Charland added two hits and two RBI, while Powers went 2-for-4, scored three runs and drove in one.

Mike Coelho stroked a two-run double, Pete Guschoy doubled, and Rich Dunn contributed a run-scoring single.

John Sheedy went 4-for-5 with two RBI and two runs scored, while Jason Reeder lashed two doubles, collected three RBI and scored twice.

Tom Bolduc was 2-for-4 with an RBI and one run scored, Jeff Kennedy slugged a double, and Tom Marjerison had an RBI safety.

Red Sox, 13-0

Mike Coelho and RJich Dunn combined for a two-hit shutout as the Red Sox blanked the Twins 13-0 in an abbreviated four-inning game.

Coelho fanned six during his relief stint. Tom Powers was a perfect 3-for-3, including two triples, and he collected three RBI.

Coelho helped himself with a double, single and two RBI, while Pete Guschoy lashed a two-run triple and single for the Sox.

Bill Lane opened the game with a single for the Twins, and Brian Barry singled for the only other Twins' safety.

Softball League Tryouts

Girls born on or after Sept. 1, 1961, are invited to tryout for the Middle Essex Girls Softball League on Saturdays, May 20 and 27 at field number 1 at the high school (across from high school parking lot) from 1-4 p.m.

The medium -pitch league is for girls between the ages of 12-16 and is made up of teams from Chelmsford, Woburn, Stoneham, Billerica, Reading, Tewksbury and Andover. League play begins late in June and extends to the beginning of August. Girls are encouraged to pick up information sheets and registration forms available at the junior and senior high schools, The Sport Shop, the Andover Hockey Shop and the Recreation/Community Schools office on Bartlett Street.

Players on last year's team are reminded that they must also tryout for this season's squad. Registration forms should be turned into the R/CS office no later than Wednesday, May 17.

Girls' Hockey Team Completes Season

The Shawsheen Squaws, Andover Girls' Hockey Team has just completed another successful season.

After finishing in a tie for third place in the Assabet Valley League, the Squaws for the second year in a row, captured the "A" Division crown in the annual Philadelphia, Pa. girls' hockey tournament.

This year on April 7, 8 and 9 the Squaws hosted their first tournament (Merrimack Valley Girls' Invitational) at Merrimack College. Although favored, the crown was captured by the team from Gardner. The tournament was such a success that the Squaws hope to make it an annual event.

The Squaws express thanks to all the people of Andover who contributed to their tag day and to those merchants who placed ads in their tournament programs.

The girls must raise all their own funds, which is very difficult at best, and they appreciate any and all help they receive. Anyone wishing to help sponsor the team or contribute funds to help the Squaws may do so by contacting Carol Downey, 66 Main St., Andover, Mass. 01810.

The Squaws will begin their '78-'79 season in September.

Brooks, 12-8

The Andover West Jr. High won it's first match of the tennis season defeating Brooks School 12 to 8.

The singles winners were Barry Buss over Dozier Gardner 6-0, 6-0 in the first position, Mark Mitchell taking Bill McEvoy 6-2, 6-1 in the fifth position, Judy Labell defeating Bill Heisey in the 7th spot and Rose Jannetti over Joe Viedler in just one set, 6-4, playing in the 8th position. Victor Paul split sets and points in the number two position against Bill DeCamp as did Pam Kennedy in a good match against Carlton Pena-Vera in the number six spot.

Laura Goodman and Mary Beth Deluca lost their singles matches to Harden Crawford and Peter Rand, and teamed up to lose a close number two doubles match to Rand and Crawford. The first doubles team of Buss and Paul lost their match in a tie-breaker to Gardner and DeCamp while Kennedy and Mitchell teamed up to defeat Penna-Vera and McEvoy in the number four spot.

Andovers fourth doubles team of Joe Kannam and Barry Bloom handily defeated Chris Nahill and Jim Thompson, 6-2, 6-1.

The tennis program at the Jr. High is progressing well with some 48 teenagers being coached by Sue Ganem and Betty Jaffee. The next scheduled matches will be May 10 at Phillips and May 17 with Pike at the Andover High courts.

Driving In Circles

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey has related that many drivers are still not aware of the new law regarding right-of-way at rotaries. The amendment to the law states that "Any operator of a vehicle entering a rotary intersection shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle already in the intersection."

The change which became effective on Jan. 20, does not apply if an operator is directed to do otherwise by a police officer, or valid traffic sign or signal.

Keefe Sets Meet Record

The Andover High School varsity track team won the Booster's Invitational Track Meet on Saturday, May 6, for the 18th time in 19 years scoring 146 points to defeat Methuen (123), Reading (113), Melrose (46) and 5 other schools.

Paul Keefe was named the meet's outstanding performer setting a new meet record of 6'7" in the high jump and also winning the high hurdles.

Rick Collins, Paul Farnham and Dave Bono also turned in outstanding performances in the Booster's meet winning the 220, triple jump and pole vault respectively.

In dual meets during the week the Golden Warriors continued undefeated in the Merrimack Valley league beating Billerica 110-35 and Lawrence 119½-25½.

The Andover varsity will meet the Phillips Academy varsity team on Saturday May 13 at the high school field starting at 1:30 p.m.

Minor League Results

The Minor League Red Sox opened up their season with a 27-10 win over the Patriots. Todd Sleath was the hitting star for the Red Sox with 5 hits in 7 trips to the plate including two home runs, one a grand slam, and 9 rbi's. Paul Sheedy and Dave Moson combined on the mound for the win. John Veilleux hit well for the Patriots with his brother Robbie Veilleux a standout in the field.

The Red Sox continued their winning ways with a hard fought 5-4 victory over the White Sox in a well played game. Paul Sheedy took over on the mound from Nick Lenbo in the fourth and held the White Sox scoreless the rest of the way striking out eight batters. Giavani pitched an excellent game for the White Sox before being lifted for gallant to start the fourth. Dave Dilling, Chip Wood and Heidi Hunter were the batting standouts for the Red Sox while Dino Martone stood out for the White Sox.

Horse Play Is Not Okay

Good drivers don't horse around when operating a motor vehicle near animals. When approaching a horse or other draft animal on the highway drivers should slow down.

If an animal appears to be frightened, bring the vehicle to a stop and turn off the ignition. Out of consideration, remain stationary until the animal has been brought under control.

Always exercise extreme caution when passing any animal. Remember, establish courteous driving habits and follow the rules of the road. It makes good horse sense.

The Under 8 Division heeding the weather forecasters' warnings on Friday night cancelled their games and awoke Saturday to find that Spring had indeed arrived in all its glory.

They will play make-up games during the week. Parents who watched their offspring play in the older divisions, in and out of town, thoroughly enjoyed the lovely warm weather. Brief results of the games follow:

Sally Kruse

On Lacrosse Team At Williams

Sally Kruse, a senior at Williams College and a resident of Andover, is a member of the 1978 Williams women's lacrosse team.

Kruse is a 1974 graduate of Andover High School where she captained the varsity field hockey, basketball and tennis teams.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kruse of 12 Arcadia Road in Andover.

Kruse is the co-captain of the Williams team and is the squad's leading scorer with 26 goals in 7 games. Coach Linda Wilkins' team is currently 5-1-1 on the season.

tory, journeyed to Salem and they returned with happy faces. Salem played a good game but they could not overcome the Falcon's strong offensive tactics which enabled them to score three goals (Greg Harris, Steve Redgate and David Bartle), whilst brilliant defense held Salem to one. Outstanding Booters: Andy Lascher, Greg Kinsky and Sam D'Urso.

Ravens 5, Swampscott Streakers 3

The Ravens played at home against Swampscott and were successful in scoring five goals (Mark Neaves, Jonathan Daly, Eric McDowell). Good goals tending by Scott Brink and Scott Plamondon held Swampscott to three goals, which gave Andover the win. Outstanding Booters: Matthew McKinnon and Bill Andrews.

Hawks 9, Swampscott Big Blue 0

The Hawks dominated the entire game they played against Swampscott Big Blues and were successful in scoring nine goals for the win (Chris Sappupo, Nicky Coon, Bruce Lane and Fred Kratz). Outstanding Booters: Steven Colitz and Sean Melia.

Eagles 5, Salem Tea-Men 1

The Eagles played a strong offensive game against Salem which in final analysis won them the victory. Before the game ended, they were successful in scoring five goals and as a matter of fact kicked in another as the whistle blew which was not allowed. Goals scored by Kyle McCabe, Scott Goldman, Matthew Young and Shannon McCabe. Outstanding Booters: Rob Hoyt, Chris Nelson.

Pumas 0, Peabody L'il Kickers 3

The Pumas had to play defensively against a strong Peabody team, who played more like Big Kickers than "L'il!! Super defensive play by Caroline Pool and Beth Ostrowski held Peabody to a three goal win.

Under 12

Cougars 1, Peabody Titans 3

The Cougars scored their first goal of the season when Dona Leith booted one into the Peabody nets!! Peabody made many assaults on the Cougar's nets, the majority of them blocked by goalies Katie D'Urso and Elaine Scanlon; however, the three goals they did succeed in scoring gave Peabody the win. Outstanding Booters: Devra Weisman, Ellen Murphy and Kathryn Schwarz.

Wolves 0, Marblehead Toros 0

The Wolves traveled to Marblehead for a re-match with the Toros; The Wolves played a strong offensive game and succeeded in booting in five goals for the win. Goals scored by Fran Lanio, Steven McDowell and John Crawford. Outstanding Booters: Mark Asgeirsson (offense) and Joby Bardetti (defense).

Bears 2, Haverhill Pal 0

Haverhill made the Bears work hard for their 4th win of the season; they made many good shots on the Bears' nets, all blocked by the wide-awake goalies and halfbacks Eric Wholley and Yale Lynch. The Bears scored in the first half (Fran Sullivan from an excellent pass by Ted McEnroe) and were awarded a penalty kick in the closing minutes of the game, successfully completed by Tom Bride.

Bisons 1, Salem Hot Shots 1

In a re-match with Salem, the Bisons found the Hot Shots a somewhat stronger adversary and they had to work hard to score the one goal (Zack Apgar). Goalies Glen Livermore and Brian MacAnally (great substitute) tended Andover's nets with much class and held Salem to one goal, for a tie game.

Elks 2, Boxford S.C. 2

If the Elks had been able to complete all three penalty kicks awarded to them in a very close game with Boxford, they would have won the victory. As it was, both teams scored two goals and split the points. Andover's goals scored by Larry Cuddy. Outstanding Booter: Halfback John Drake.

Cheetahs 0, Marblehead Kicks 4

Marblehead's goal in the opening moments of play set the mood for the entire game with the Cheetahs playing defensively throughout. The Cheetahs offensive line (Joanne Martin, Patti Alatrosky and Aimee Ross) made some excellent goal attempts but Marblehead was determined to win and only good defensive play by Jennifer Smith, Kristen Thompson, Toni Weiner and Sara-Michelle Sappupo, held them to a 4-0 victory.

Menominees 2, Apaches 1

Gets Grant

Area representatives of the 3M Company recently presented the University of Lowell College of Engineering with two grants totaling $5,000 at a luncheon meeting in Cumnock Hall on the campus.

Robert Olefiak, plant manager of Linolex Systems, Inc. of Bedford made the presentation to University of Lowell President John B. Duff, awarding $2000 to the plastics engineering department and $3000 to the electrical engineering department.

It is always exciting to watch two Andover teams playing and this game was no exception. Both teams demonstrated some fine soccer skills and really a penalty kick awarded the Menominees and successfully completed by Ian Yates, was the key to victory for that team. Substitute goalie Marc Bolan turned in a fine performance as did John Lemieux, Danny Poore and Mark Sullivan (Menominees), Bill Martin, Bob Retelle and David Fredette (Apaches). Goals scored by Tom Duncan and Tom Healey.

Mic-Macs 2, Salem Jukes 1

The Mic-Macs dominated the first half of the game against Salem and Dan Boland scored two goals on assists from Ken Saliba and Frank Rossitto. Salem scored one goal. In the second half, Salem played a much stronger game but good defense thwarted their many attempts to score, giving the Mic-Macs the win. Outstanding Booters Alvin Ohlenbusch, Stephen Holt and Kevin Hunt.

Lions 0, Peabody Flames 0

The Lions and the Flames both played a very aggressive game when they met in Peabody; however, excellent defensive action by both teams resulted in a scoreless tie. Fullbacks Mary Opper and Beth Luciano, as well as halfback Laurie Bordelais provided the excellent defense for Andover. Outstanding Booters: Maura Keegan, Heather Hughes and Jenna Powell.

Commanches 3, Saugus Wolverines 1

Continuing their winning streak, the Commanches in a re-match with Saugus once again proved that they were skilled in the art of assaulting the opposition's nets successfully, and they won 3-1. Goals scored by Rick Apgar and Greg Batten. Outstanding Booters: Danny O'Hara, Bobby French and goalie Danny Kimball who made some great saves.

Tigers 2, Topsfield Kicks 3

The Tigers played a very exciting home game against Topsfield which kept the numerous spectators agog until the final whistle! Topsfield scored twice in the first half and Beth Caswell booted one in for Andover. Topsfield scored again in the second half, as did the Tigers (Diane Casey) after much scuffling in front of Topsfield's nets. There were no more goals and thus Topsfield won the victory. Outstanding Booters: Cindy Luby (midfield), Cindy Casey, Dennie Annanian (defense) as well as goalie RuthAnn Tassinari.

cond half, as did the Tigers (Diane Casey) after much scuffling in front of Topsfield's nets. There were no more goals and thus Topsfield won the victory. Outstanding Booters: Cindy Luby (midfield), Cindy Casey, Dennie Annanian (defense) as well as goalie RuthAnn Tassinari.

Hotspurs 3, Marblehead Timbers 0

The Hotspurs continuing their winning streak, chalked up another victory when they traveled to Marblehead to play against the Timbers. They played a strong offensive game and were successful in scoring three goals, whilst denying Marblehead any good shots on their nets. Goals scored by Adam Roberts, Stefan Wennik on an assist from David Jennings, and Dan Roberts.

Celtics 5, Marblehead Cosmos 0

The first half of the game remained scoreless as excellent defense blocked many good shots on the goals by both Andover and Marblehead. The entire Celtics team played very aggressively in the second half, challenged Marblehead's strong defensive line and scored five goals for the win. Goalie John Cox worked hard for his first shutout; he also scored a goal as a fullback in the closing moments of a very exciting game! Other goals scored by Brent Ballard and Dan Donovan (both on corner kicks froh Mark Reed), as well as Chuck Augello and Tom Bainbridge.

Rangers 1, Salem Rowdies 4

The Rangers lost their first game to Salem. Neither team dominated the play but the Salem players were more successful in scoring goals. Andover's penalty goal completed by Jere Kearns. Outstanding Booters: Rich LeRoy (defense) and Andy Kinsky (offense).

Under 19

Andover United 3, Salem Fires 1

Andover United again snuffed the Salem Fires in a game which remained tied until its closing moments when Andover booted in two quick goals for their fourth straight victory. David Yates scored two goals and Eric Brandt surprised Salem's goalie with a high 40 yard kick!! Outstanding Booters: Greg Moss and Eric Ketzler.

Golden Ales 0, Lynn YSC 1

With only eleven players, Coach Steve Earley's Golden Ales played a spirited, though somewhat tiring, game against Lynn. The game remained scoreless until the second half when Lynn penetrated the Golden Ales' defense line and scored a goal for the win.

Leopards 1, Marblehead Chargers 5

Marblehead once again dominated the play in a re-match with the Leopards and goalie Sue Jasmin made some brilliant saves: her teammates Grace Emmert and Patrice Keegan played an excellent game also and attempted to minimize the loss.

Andover Ladies Win State Title

The Andover Ladies Bowling Team won the Massachusetts State Championship held recently at Fairway Sports World, Natick. This is an annual event sponsored by the Massachusetts Bowling Association and the Boston Globe.

Andover won the Ladies Teams Open by rolling a 1675. Captain Carol Downey rolled a 337, Judi Barbieri 348, Jet Cutress 308, Marg Paon 355, Barbara Palmer 327. In the Ladies Open Doubles,

The United States imports nearly half of the petroleum it consumes and that cost comes to more than $45 billion annually.

Carol Downey and Mike still to bown were in second place with a 1199.

All-Out Effort

Kevin Canavan pours on the steam in Saturday's canoe race on the Shawsheen.

Canoe Race Winners

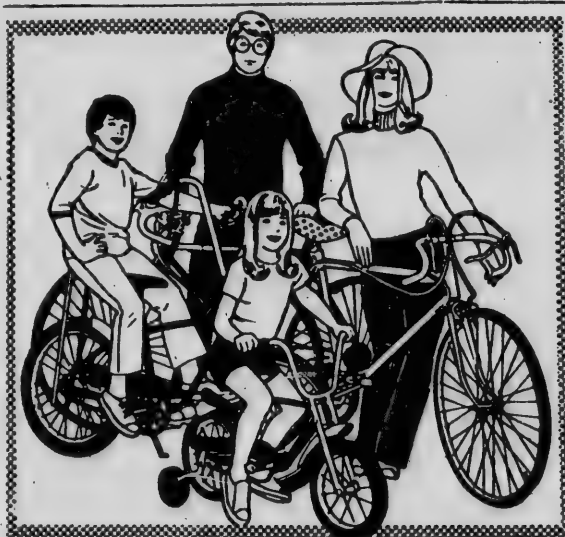

Sunny skies and warm temperatures provided ideal conditions on the Shawsheen River Saturday for the annual AVIS canoe and kayak races. Over 45 entrants vied for trophies and ribbons in the three races while many enthusiastic spectators cheered them on from the riverbank.

The Open Race was won by David Dargie. In second place were Steve and John Pustell, and in third were Alex North and Allen French. Paul Dafgie was first in the kayak division, followed by Thomas Hamilton, second and Sean Callahan, third. Debbie Hamilton won the women's kayak division.

Winners in the Intermediate Race were Dan and David Gagnon, repeat winners of last year. In second place were Ralph and Mark Skinder, and in third were Peter and Kathy Gagne. Hillery French and John North were first in the kayak division.

The beginners downstream race won by Douglas Cairnie and Stanley Dzierlatka. Second place was won by Bob Francis and his partner, and third place were Nan and Jennifer Gagnon.

Andover Stars Win 31 In A Row

The Andover Stars Basketball Team (eighth graders) coached by Frank Monette and assisted by Ernie Darby completed a three year reign of supremacy in All-Star Basketball Tournament play in Eastern Massachusetts recently by winning the Wakefield Invitational Championship.

Over the past three years the team has entered eleven tournaments and won every one. They not only won every tournament that they entered but also won every game for a 31 game winning streak, which may be a State record.

Coach Monette says the undefeated

Orienteering Workshop Scheduled

A workshop for introduction to the sport of Orienteering is scheduled at the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. under the leadership of Nat Stevens. High School youth and adults holding a full privilege or basic memberships may register at the "Y". An evening session is scheduled on Thursday, May 18, 7-9 p.m. and a Saturday morning class on May 20, 9-12 noon. Emphasis will be placed on mapwork and compass reading. The Saturday class will be actual participation.

Beginners interested in Orienteering are welcome as well as individuals who have had some experience. Call the "Y" office for details.

team has learned the five basic fundamentals: 1. Good individual defense and team defense, 2. Excellent team-work on offense, 3. Aggressiveness offensively and defensively, 4. Unselfishness, 5. Confidence in themselves and their teammates. They all practice constantly and work very hard at improving themselves.

In the Wakefield Tournament, Andover faced Burlington in the quarter-finals and coasted to a 35-27 victory as Andover's 6th man E. J. Perry led the team with 8 points as 11 players hit the scoring column.

In the semi-finals Andover stopped Stoneham 45-31. Center Bill Caselden had 18 points, Guard Phil Farr 13 points and some fine rebounding and floor play by Ted Kelley, Mike White and Carmen Scarpa.

In the finals, Andover was facing a tough Woburn team who almost beat Andover in the Boston Tournament last year. Andover fans saw some clutch foul shooting by Bill Caselden, Mike White, Ted Kelley and a key hoop by E. J. Perry that won the game 55-52. Ted Kelley led the team with 18 points, E. J. Perry 8, Mike White and Bill Caselden 7 each, Tim Hart 5, John Ingemi 4, Phil Farr 4, and Carmen Scarpa 2 points.

Following are the 13 Stars that make up the team and season statistics: Forward Mike White 124 points, 12.4 per game, 82 rebounds, 31 assists, 48% Field Goal shooting, 55% Free throw shooter; Forward Ted Kelley, 130 points, 13.0 per game, 107 rebounds, 42 assists, 35 steals, 50% field goal shooter, 59% Free throw shooter, Center Bill Caselden 111 points, 11.1 per game, 115 rebounds, 20 assists, 22 steals 46% Field Goal shooter, and 54% Free throw shooter. Guard Carmen Scarpa 74 points, 7.4 per game, 61 assists, 47 steals and 59% free throw shooter. Guard Phil Farr, 89 points, 8.9 per game, 29 assists, 49 steals, 40 rebounds, 46% Field Goal shooter. Guard E. J. Perry 46 points, 5.1 per game while only playing half the game, 23 steals, 45% Field Goal shooter and led the team in free throw accuracy with 85%. Forward Tim Hart also a sub had a 4.0 points per game and a .44% field goal shooter. Center John Ingemi 4 points per game 30 rebounds, 40% Field Goal shooter and 50% free throw shooter. Guard Dave Fluet 3 points per game and a good rebounder for a guard and a 71% free throw shooter. Forward Tom MacDonald a good aggressive rebounder and an 80% free throw shooter. Andy Emmert a good rebounding guard and aggressive defensive star. Craig Horgan who played Guard and Don Minor who played Forward saw limited action because of injuries. The team averaged 64.6 points per game while their opponents scored 46.3 per game for an 18.3 points per game winning margin.

The team had a family outing Sunday, May 7 at the Recreation park at which time the boys were honored for their fine year.

Fishing Derby Is Saturday

The Andover Sportsmen's Club will conduct its annual Bert Foss Fishing Derby at Hussey's Pond, Shawsheen, Saturday,
May 13 from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Sportsmen's club has been sponsoring this event since 1949. Members stock the pond with trout and the youngsters have opportunity to catch the fish without adult competition. Hussey's pond is the only pond in this area restricted to children under 12 years of age.

All boys and girls 12 years of age or younger are invited to enter the tourney on Saturday and compete for the prizes to be awarded.

FOR $6645* YOU CAN BUY A CHEAP CAR. OR AN EXPENSIVE ONE.

It's no longer true that you get what you pay for.
At least, it isn't true among the 1978 models.
That's because—for about the same money—you can become the disappointed owner of a cheaply made car or the satisfied owner of one that's well made.

Luckily, the cheap ones can give themselves away to anybody who bothers to look closely. Doors, hood and trunk lid don't fit properly. The paint job is dribbled in some places, spotty in others (especially on top of the hood). The trunk is a wasteland of raw, unfinished surfaces. Rattles are constant companions.

Volvos, on the other hand, are known for being solidly built and painstakingly finished. And Volvo owners confirm it. In a recent independent national survey, a significantly higher percentage of owners of new Volvos rated their cars "excellent" in terms of overall quality of workmanship than did the owners of all 57 American makes surveyed!

The amazing thing is that, for the price of many of the cheap cars, you can own an expensively built, well-equipped Volvo...the 1978 Volvo 242 in a dealer's showroom near you.

Why settle for less when the price is no more?

W.J.H. Activities

By Lauren Whitley

Last week was the final wrap-up of F.A.S.T. (Fight Against Starvation Today). The students who helped on the committee worked extremely hard to make the W.J.H. pupils aware of their cause. The number of fundraising activities included everything from foodless bakesales and contribution boxes in each homeroom, to a carwash on April 29. During the F.A.S.T. week almost a thousand dollars was collected, not only from the junior high itself, but from all the elementary schools in Andover. They also collected over 2,200 cans from all the schools. CARE, to whom the money will be given, is very grateful and is planning to use the money in many starvation relief programs. The canned goods will go to the Salvation Army to help the needs in our community.

This week the tryouts for the Spring Open House Program are being held. The theme chosen for this year will be "West Junior Academy Awards Night."

The event is being planned for Thursday, May 25 and includes a chicken Bar-B-Que and various school exhibits.

Last Saturday, May 6, there was a Film Festival at W.J.H. from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The program was sponsored by the seventh graders to help pay for their trip to Cape Cod in June.

AMC To Walk Deer Jump

On Mother's Day May 14th at 1:30 the Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club is sponsoring a walk along the banks of the Merrimack River.

The walk is on the Deer-jump Reservation which contains some most unusual red or river birch and sassafras trees (the leaves look like mittens). In addition to the flora (just starting to bloom) on this narrow 95 acre tract cared for by AVIS (David Batey, Warden) is the possibility of locating the site of a ferry landing; the ferry operated between Andover and Methuen in the early 1900's.

This will be a leisurely walk and for those so inclined a car will be available at the half way point for anyone wishing to forego the return trip. The start will be from Fish Brook Dam located a half mile from Rte. 93; take the River Road exit away from Lawrence and turn right at Brundrett Ave. There is parking space available near the pumping station. The leaders for this put the Mom back in Mother Nature walk are Barbara Coffman and Charlie Cutler.

The octopus has one of the more rapid (two-thirds of a second) and varied color changes in nature, Massachusetts Audubon notes. The chromatophore, a cell that contains pigments, is surrounded by an elastic membrand, and the size and shape of the cell are controlled by radial muscle fibers. By expanding and contracting the cells, colors shimmer and flicker across the body.

THE CHAMPAGNE EDITION II DASHERS: VOLKSWAGENS THAT COULD GO TO YOUR HEAD.

Beware! The mere sight of our Champagne cars has been known to make people dizzy.

For the Dashers are our most beautiful Volkswagens. Now, they're even more beautiful with stunning green metallic paint.

Inside, these cars are enough to make you sit up and take notice. There's rich, crushed velour upholstery in our 2-door and 4-door hatchbacks, and beautiful leatherette in our wagon. Both models come with deep, cut pile carpeting and handsome, quartz crystal clocks.

There's also front-wheel drive. Fuel injection. Overhead cam engine. Impressive engineering.

In fact, about the only thing these limited editions seem to lack is quantity. So if you want one, you'll have to hurry.

Just ask your Volkswagen dealer for a test drive.

After a taste of our Champagne, other cars will look pale by comparison.

The old ways are left, but progress has changed things. In a way it is sad to see that only the old people are left to farm the diminishing plots of land while the young have either moved to the city or commute everyday and are no longer interested in the more difficult traditional rural life. The six day weeks of working dawn-to-dusk are virtually over, along with the extended family.

Here and there a communal tractor can be seen, and a remarkable number of winding narrow village roads, not used by more than 20 or 30 cars a day, are now paved. Outhouses have in all cases been replaced by indoor plumbing, but hot water heaters and indoor heating are still scarce and the number of telephones is virtually zero. And this is also a place where some people still sign their names with just an X. Really startled me the first time I saw it!

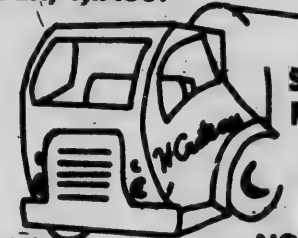

The life outside the city is certainly a different one and one that many are sad has gone. I've heard the old say that the past may have been very hard, but, in a way, there was more fun; "sure we get money from our children now, but it's not the close, satisfying life with the few but

PROBATE COURT

Case No. 257046

Essex, ss.

NOTICE OF FIDUCIARY'S ACCOUNT

To all persons interested in the estate of EDWARD V. FRENCH (late) of Andover in said County; and to the ATTORNEY GENERAL of said Commonwealth: thirteenth to eighteenth accounts, inclusive, of BOSTON SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST COMPANY, for the benefit of HELEN F. GREENE, and the thirteenth to eighteenth accounts, inclusive, of BOSTON SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST COMPANY, for the benefit of MARGARET V. GORTON, formerly MARGARET V. BROWN, as trustees (fiduciary) under the will of said deceased have been presented to said Court for allowance.

If you desire to preserve your right to file an objection to said account(s), you or your attorney must file a written appearance in said Court at Salem on or before the fifth day of June, 1978, the return day of this citation. You may upon written request by registered or certified mail to the fiduciary or to the attorney for the fiduciary obtain without cost a copy of said account(s). If you desire to object to any item of said account(s), you must, in addition to filing a written appearance as aforesaid, file within thirty days after said return day or within such other time as the Court upon motion may order a written statement of each such item together with the grounds for each objection thereto, a copy to be served upon the fiduciary pursuant to Mass. R. Civ. P. Rule 5. Witness, ALBERT P. PETTORUTO, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this third day of May, 1978.

TAKEOVER NOT AUTOMATIC

When buying an existing home, taking over a mortgage can be practical and profitable. But be cautious. Don't take for granted that assigning the mortgage to another is automatic.

The lender has a stake in who's going to repay him. Many mortgages are written which specifically prohibit this practice without the consent of the mortgage lender. The teeth will be found in an inserted acceleration clause which makes the whole balance due and payable upon sale.

The bank can activate or waive this clause depending on the credit rating of the buyer, maintenance of the property or spread between original and current interest rates. If the interest spread is great — don't count on a takeover mortgage.

Before you advertise "low int. mort. takeover", and set yourself up for a let-down, why not have us check your mortgage and advise you.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Succumbs To Hit-Run Injuries

Brian M. Simpson, 16, 11 Amherst Road, Andover, died at St. John's Hospital in Lowell of injuries sustained in a hit-and-run accident April 29.

Simpson and a friend, Christopher J. Malcolm, 16, 7 Richard Circle, Andover had been hitchhiking home from Salisbury Beach on Route 495 when they were struck by a hit-and-run driver at about 1:50 in the morning, according to police. The accident occurred near Westgate Shopping Center in Haverhill.

Malcolm was treated and released for head injuries at Hale Hospital in Haverhill, where Simpson was also brought for treatment. He was later transferred to St. John's Hospital.

Simpson was born in Lawrence, Feb. 28, 1962, the son of Edward and Gladys (Cairns) Simpson. He attended Andover High School, the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School and St. Augustine's Church.

Besides his parents, he leaves one brother, Edward Simpson Jr. of Salem; one sister, Beverly, wife of Allen C. Gentile of Lawrence; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. George Cairns of Andover; and several aunts and uncles.

A funeral mass will be offered Friday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Augustine's Church. A family interment will be at Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Calling hours at the M.A. Burke Funeral Home, 390 No. Main St., Andover will be tonight from 6:30 to 9:30.

Canine Behavior Improving

While Andover's new leash law is not yet enforceable, it would appear residents are heeding its directive.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said this week that it appears residents are restraining their dogs on their own property or walking them on a leash. Complaints regarding broken trash bags have been greatly reduced, Clark said, indicating the town is appreciative of the co-operation being shown.

The leash law approved at town meeting this year, must be approved by the attorney general, before it can be enforced.

Meanwhile, the dog control law approved last October is on the books and there are now two dog officers on duty to enforce the regulations.

simple pleasures that we had."

On the working side of helping the Vet, it's a great joy to be around the animals. There are quite a few new experiences. In the last few times out I've seen and assisted in everything from the distribution of 2000, day-old chicks, to the castration of a pig. Plus many vaccination and "surrogate father" jobs.

The hardest thing for me is to learn the language. It's very difficult with a complex grammatical structure. I can usually understand about 75% in conversations. But understanding very old people or villagers is sometimes hard. Like many other areas in the country, there is a local Istrian dialect to cope with. Once I get a solid base in Hrvatski, I can easily learn Russian, Polish, Czechoslovakian, etc. School is pretty boring but I only go about half as much as the other kids. I have been on a ski trip to Slovenia for ten days and have visited Trieste and Venice in Italy.

I have come to love the people here, and respect their very different way of life. I enjoy learning of Communism and their truly unique Socialist economy and political system. The Yugoslavs are very proud of being independent of Russia (of whom there are many jokes about) as well as every other country East and West.

Last of all, I would like to formally thank the Andover Chapter of the American Field Service (AFS) for this opportunity and others which they freely give to young people. AFS is a worthwhile organization active throughout the United States in many communities. I hope the people of Andover keep support-ting this fine organization just as they always have.
